STINGERS

Fresh faces in the men's basketball lineup

There are two new players this semester on the Concordia men's basketball team, Kurt MacAlpine and James Aubourg.

MacAlpine is a six-foot, six-inch forward who has brought much enthusiasm to the team. After the 20 year old's first weekend playing on the team, he was named Concordia male athlete of the week. In four games he has 23 points and 13 rebounds. A native of Saint John, N.B., MacAlpine is studying management at Concordia. In 1999 he was a member of New Brunswick's provincial team. In high school, he was a first team all-star and an all-time leading scorer in New Brunswick.

Aubourg is studying industrial engineering at Concordia. Aubourg was on the Stinger team last year but had to take this past semester off. In the five games of league play this semester, he has had 45 points and 18 rebounds. The 20 year old is most proud of his high school, St-Paul de Varennes, being the provincial basketball champions. Aubourg native of Lemoyne, Que.

The men's basketball team's next game is at McGill on Thursday at 8 p.m. and its next home game is against Bishop's on Saturday at 3 p.m. versus Bishop's.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Jessica Anderson of the women's hockey team and Gavin Musgrave of the men's hockey team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Jan. 27.

Anderson, a first-year goalie, had 41 shots on goal and allowed one goal in a 1-1 tie in to the No. 2-ranked Toronto Varsity Blues on Sunday. A native of Beaconsfield, Que., Anderson is studying history at Concordia.

Musgrave, a third-year guard, had 34 points over the weekend. On Friday in a 100-70 loss to the Laval Rouge et Or, he had 25 points and five rebounds and on Sunday in a 78-65 loss to the Bishop's Gaiters he had 19 points, one rebound and two assists. The 23 year old is a native of Montreal and is studying exercise science at Concordia.
